

MCKENNA BRAY

Website:

www.mckennabray.com

Booking:

braymusicmanager@gmail.com

Opening Act Opportunities:

Drew Holcomb & the Neighbors

American Authors

Mo Pitney

Jimmy Fortune "The Statler Brothers"

Booking History:

Orpheum Theater in Memphis, TN, Delta Fair & Music Festival, Memphis Fest, The Nick in Birmingham, AL, Lafayette's Music Room in Memphis, TN & Orlando, FL, Ditty TV, Sun Studio Sessions on PBS, Nashville Predators Halftime Performance, Hideaway Farms, The Burl in Lexington, KY, Halloran Centre in Memphis, TN, and others in the Mid-south and California.

In the Press

"There are many Americana singers in Tennessee. It almost seems unfair to put an artist in a box... In the case of McKenna Bray, it almost does her a disservice... There are so many surprises in the songwriting, it defies any label that might suggest the Carter Family or simple folk strumming."

-Alex Greene from Memphis Flyer

"With a sound somewhere in between Brandi Carlile and Kacey Musgraves, her lyrics and voice are raw and straight from the soul."

- The Tour Collierville Magazine

"[w]hat really sets the album apart is Bray's voice. It is no small feat to evoke the rich alto of Ronstadt, with the same unaffected, straightforward delivery that can enliven lyrics with a disarming edge. It's understandable that she auditioned for American Idol. But really, she was too good for them. She avoids all the clichés of that game. And their loss is our gain."

-Alex Greene from Memphis Flyer

